

---

---

POSITION POSTING

---

POSITION: PRODUCTION WORKER, ELECTRICAL
REPORTS TO: FOREMAN, ELECTRICAL

---

RESPONSIBILITIES & DUTIES:

- Works in Electrical Department.
    - Installs and assembles electrical components and makes all necessary electrical connections.
    - Reads, interprets and applies electrical schematics and shop drawings.
    - Tests electrical connections and components and makes appropriate alterations as necessary.
    - Completes work within established time standards.
  - Provides training to other employees as required.
  - Other duties as assigned.
-

SKILLS & ATTRIBUTES REQUIRED:

- Ability to install and assemble electrical components and make all necessary electrical connections using hand and air tools, as determined by the Foreman, with minimal additional training.
  - Ability to interpret and apply electrical schematics, and shop drawings.
  - Ability to lift assemblies of up to 100 lbs, bend, reach and twist, and remain standing for up to 10 hours per day.
  - Ability to stay focused on work duties and complete assigned work in a timely and efficient fashion ensuring quality standards are attained.
  - Ability to work as part of a team.
-

EXPERIENCE REQUIRED:

- Experience in electrical assembly or repair considered an asset.
-

EDUCATION REQUIRED:

- Successful completion of an Electrical Assembly Technician, Electrical Engineering Technology, or equivalent course at a recognized community college.
-

POSITION DURATION AND SCHEDULE:

- Permanent Position
  - Current work schedule is Monday to Thursday, 40 hours/week.
-

RATE OF PAY:

- Class "B"
  - Starting rate is $10.51 per hour.
-

START DATE: When successful candidate available.

DATE OF POSTING: February 14, 2006

Applicants should submit their resume to hr@conviron.com, to the attention of Judy, referencing "PW, Electrical."

We are committed to Employment Equity and provide a fair and equitable environment. We encourage applications from qualified women, men, visible minorities, aboriginal peoples, and persons with disabilities.